The Chelan-Douglas CHI will be partaking in an activity to find solutions for a real life problem that is occurring in Chelan and Douglas Counties.</li> <li>Part of the programming at The Center for Alcohol and Drug Treatment is to get a job and/or volunteer to give back to the community, find some purpose in their day, and be able to get back on their feet. The barrier that is happening is that these individuals are unemployed, don't have the funds for bus tokens, and are not getting jobs because they are showing up for interviews after walking in the heat/cold. Are there any resources for these individuals that are trying to become active members of the community?"</li> </ul>	Discussion/Activity
