Prop 1: Presentation from Link Transit

Moving Forward with CHI Action Plans

- Chelan-Douglas CHI worked on focus areas for 2019 at the beginning of this year.
- In April 2019, the CHI members developed action plans.
- Now, the Chelan-Douglas CHI will prioritize those actionable items for the next upcoming meetings (September, October, November and December).

WIN 211 Workshop and Presentation

Next Steps:

- Invite Tim Sullivan to a CHI meeting
- Share Chelan-Douglas 211 report of agencies in the system
- Plan a meeting inviting organizations that are not on 211

Purpose: Learn the system and identify/get those who are not on 211

Relief housing crisis for unseen homeless population

Next Steps:

Panel:

- Susan with the Wenatchee School District that works with homeless youth
- Alicia McRae present and give more information about the Housing Authority
- Jenny from YWCA present on their work around homelessness
- Oliver Crain from the City of Wenatchee on the PIT Count
- Alan Walker from Community Action Council

Purpose:

- Have a panel focused on unseen homeless population
- Receive more information and education on what action is taking place in Chelan and Douglas Counties around homelessness

Identify current resources and needs

Next Steps:

- Steve Maher present about Our Valley Our Future

Purpose:

- Know more resources and plans happening in the community

Asset Mapping Activity

Next Steps:

- Tanya Gleason will facilitate an asset mapping activity

Purpose:

- Bring a diverse group of people together to identify a wide range of community assets
- Identify the resources that will help you organize a dialogue-to-change approach for community problem solving

Provide culturally responsive outreach

Next Steps:

- Hold a Culturally Sensitivity Training

Purpose:

- Bring awareness and learn more about cultural differences and similarities

Community outreach

Next Steps:

- Form a community outreach advisory group or subcommittee

Purpose:

- Increase the presence of the CHI within Chelan and Douglas Counties

Moving Forward with CHI Action Plan Activity

- Each attendee will receive 6 sticky dots.
- Each person can put a sticky dot in the “low,” “medium” or “high” category next to the action plan item.
- This will determine the agendas for the 2019 September, October, November and December.
- Sign up and volunteer to help plan those CHI meetings.
